Club founded by Ron Measure. A BBC TV programme about a convention of barbershop singing in America impressed him so much that, with information from the BBC, and support from Barrie Best at SPEBSQSA, Dale Gaus, a visiting American singer with the Vocal Majority, Chuck O'Dom and 12 members of a new Barbershop Club in Brighton, and help from SPEBSQSA, he placed a recruitment advert in the local paper. The first meeting was held in the Star and Garter Public House on Friday 26th September 1975. It was very successful, and about a month later the Club moved to the Holwood Hall, Bromley
