Barbershop chorus is making it big

A BROMLEY barbershop chorus sang to a packed house at Rochester Cathedral's Dickensian Festival.

The concert rounded off a successful weekend for the Kentones, after qualifying in Exeter for the finals of the British champion barbershop chorus to be held in Glasgow next year.

Barbershop singer Peter Aylett said: "It was an experience we shall never forget."

"We will give our all when we compete in the finals."

The Bromley Barbershop Harmony Club are looking for new members. Anyone who wants to join, can call 01689 818623.
